

WOMEN EAST-WEST:
Newsletter of the Association for Women in Slavic Studies
CURRENT BIBLIOGRAPHY
Supplement to Issue no. 100 (Spring 2011)
December 2011

Because of the long period of time between the publication of issue no. 100 (Spring 2011) and issue no. 101 (2012) of WOMEN EAST-WEST, this supplement attempts to bring the bibliography up to date. Included are journal articles, essays and books published in 2010 and earlier, and not yet cited. All 2011 citations (and newly identified earlier items) will begin to appear in the first WEW issue of 2012. The bibliography found in issue no. 100 can be found at: http://www.awsshome.org/newsletter/WEW_spring11_print.pdf. -June Farris, Bibliographic Editor

Readers are encouraged to forward items which have thus far escaped listing to: June Pachuta Farris, Bibliographer for Slavic, East European and Eurasian Studies, Room 263 Regenstein Library, 1100 East 57th Street, Chicago, IL 60637 USA (jpf3@uchicago.edu).

Miss Gulag. Produced by Neilhausen-Yatskova & Vodar Film; written by Maria Yatskova & Irina Vodar. Nashville, TN: Documentary Channel, 2007. 1 DVD

Follows three female prisoners in Siberian prison UF91-9, preparing to compete in a beauty pageant. Through the pageant emerges a complex narrative of the lives of the first generation of women to come of age in post-Soviet Russia. Miss Gulag explores the individual destinies of three women: Yulia, Tatiana, and Natasha, all bound together by long prison sentences and circumstances that have made them the vigilantes of their own destinies.
